FASS Mentorship Programme

This year-long programme links penultimate-year undergraduates from the Faculty of Arts & Social Sciences (FASS) with successful FASS alumni.

Mentors are FASS alumni who have graduated at least three years ago. A call is made in February of each year for students to sign up.

“Despite my mentor’s busy schedule, she was always prompt in replying emails and met with me over meals. She even offered me an internship opportunity...At the end of this mentorship, I gained more than just career guidance and personal development. Mentees should not go into this programme with the mindset of leveraging on their mentors solely but to establish a two-way relationship in order to benefit more from mentorship .” – Geography student

NUS Law Alumni Mentor Programme

This programme links first and second year NUS Law students with recent alumni, who can provide insights and guidance to the practice of law.

Mentors and Mentees will be asked to commit to the programme for a year, with the expectation of meeting once a semester in person.

“I was thankful for opportunities to meet with young practitioners who can better understand our queries and concerns, and can answer our questions on the process of securing Internships/TCS...” – Law student

RISE Mentorship Programme

“A great opportunity to have a mentor, and to set your goals and career paths” – NUS Year 3 Student, Mentee with Accenture

RISE Mentorship is a 12-week programme where students with disabilities* from universities and polytechnics are matched with business managers from corporates, MNCs and other inclusive employers.

Across the 12 weeks, you will meet your mentor for mentoring sessions. Some activities during mentoring may include mock job interviews, networking sessions and honing resume writing skills.

Through the programme, you will be able to gain a better understanding of your skills and abilities, build professional networks and tap into your mentor’s wealth of knowledge and work experience.
