Eileen Goh
HR Business Partner
Accenture

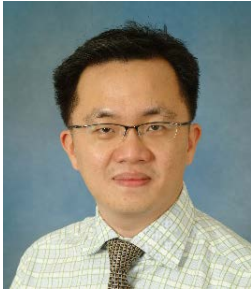

Eileen graduated with Honors in History from FASS in 2001. She is currently a HR Business Partner in Accenture. Her role requires her to partner and advise business leaders on all aspects of talent management. Her greatest fulfillment comes from being able to influence and/or execute initiatives that not only creates impact to the business, but that also uplift employees' capability and engagement.

Outside of work, Eileen is a mother to a 3.5 year old boy, volunteers for disaster relief work and is a nature lover.

Eugene Lee
Director
Physical Planning (North)
Urban Redevelopment Authority

Eugene graduated from the department of Geography in 2004. He worked for Singapore Airlines as an Admin Officer before moving on to URA to be an Urban Planner. Eugene currently works with a team of urban planners to oversee the spatial development of the North region. He works in collaboration with government agencies, researchers and local stakeholders to bring plans to reality.

Eric Lau Chek Wai
Teaching Faculty,
Theory of Knowledge
School of The Arts

Eric Lau graduated with a B.A. (Honors/2002) and an M.A. (2006) in Philosophy from NUS. He taught Philosophy at Raffles Girls' School (Secondary) and was instrumental in crafting the Raffles Philosophy Course. Currently, he is teaching Theory of Knowledge at the School of the Arts and is in charge of designing the syllabus and assessments. He has also published a textbook on Knowledge and Inquiry.

Karen Ann Leong
Deputy Director
Travel Agents & Tourists Guides,
Tour & Industry Development
Singapore Tourism Board

Karen is Deputy Director of Tour & Industry Development at the Singapore Tourism Board. In this role, she gets to influence the tours in Singapore and help raise the capability of travel agents and tourist guides. Before this, she was in MICE, enjoying the thrill of bringing world-class business events to Singapore. She has worked on strategic projects including the Travel Agent Roadmap and MICE 2020. She really enjoys what she does, and believes that tourism plays a big role in shaping a city and the liveability of its people.

Karen holds a Masters in Philosophy from NUS and a Master's in Public Administration from the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy where she was best student in 2015.

Networking Representatives

Samantha Lim
Business Development
Salesforce

Samantha graduated from NUS with a Bachelors of Arts (Philosophy) in 2013. She is well-versed in B2B IT solutions, acquired during her time in SingTel and Google. Samantha's forte lies in marketing and business development. She is currently at Salesforce, in the Enterprise Business Development unit, handling new business opportunities for Singapore.

Lim Hui Ying
Correctional Rehabilitation Specialist
Ministry of Home Affairs

Hui Ying graduated from the NUS Psychology Department in 2011, and have worked in the Singapore Prison Service (MHA) since then. As a Correctional Rehabilitation Specialist, she conducts offender assessment and correctional programmes targeted at reducing the risk of re-offending. On top of that, the work involves assisting offenders in their transition to aftercare upon their release. Effort is also placed on research, evaluation as well as cross-departmental work with other ministries and agencies to enhance our work and to ensure continual improvement. Currently, Hui Ying is also pursuing her Masters in Clinical Psychology, and hope to better enhance correctional work with clinical knowledge.
