Dear students,

More global companies (including government agencies) are utilising Assessment Centres in their recruitment process. Assessment Centres focus on a set of varied exercises, which are designed to simulate different aspects of the work environment. These Assessment Centre exercises then assess how closely your behaviours match the requirements for the role.

Assessment Centres usually last from half-a-day to two full days depending on the position you are applying for. Join this workshop and learn strategies on how to succeed in Assessment Centres!

In this workshop, you will:

• Understand how you will be assessed in Assessment Centres
• Apply tips to ace individual and group Assessment Centres exercises

About the Trainer for the 6 September Workshop:

Shiraz's expertise lies in Marketing Management, Communications, and Training spanning over multiple industries including Aerospace, Telecommunications, Renewable Energy and Education. He considers himself a communications expert, who consistently ensures the viability of multi-million-dollar projects.

An avid traveler who has also worked in Canada, the USA, the UK and Singapore, he is a true "people person". As such, he has produced strong and sustainable results for high echelon clients including government ministries, major energy companies, and senior corporate executives.

About the Trainer for the 25 and 26 September Workshop:

With experience in communications starting 2005, Andrew brings a great depth of experience to his workshop audiences. He is an energetic and dynamic trainer beloved for injecting humor into his presentations. Having worked with a wide range of people, from C-Suite level executives to primary school students, Andrew builds strong rapport with anybody and everybody.
