Having started his first business venture more than 14 years ago, Lee Junior represents a new breed of young serial entrepreneurs with extensive entrepreneurial experience and network, which spans across diverse industries, ranging from high-tech start-up companies and SMEs to MNCs.

In his current appointment as Director and Head of Business Development in ACE Nexus Pte Ltd, Lee is in charge of identifying, “incubating” and marrying companies that require venture capital financing with investors and financial institutions such as Venture Capital Funds, Corporate Investors and High Net Worth Individuals through M&A, equity or debt financing.

Before starting ACE Nexus with his partners with the support of EDB and JTC, Lee worked as the Vice President of iAxil Pte Ltd, the business incubator arm of Ascendas Pte Ltd, which provides one-stop solution to help techno-tenants launch and grow their ventures. Prior to joining Ascendas, Lee worked as a key member of Suntec City’s Innovative Technology Initiative Team (IT²), and was instrumental in conceptualising and executing Suntec City’s cutting-edge technology initiatives and IT Convergence Exercise.

Besides helping to grow and raise funds for his firm’s incubatees and clients, the projects that Lee had played significant roles in, include helping to jumpstart the EDB-initiated HOTSpots (Hub of Technopreneurs) Programme, the patenting of Suntec City’s Facilities Service Provider (FSP) business model, and the implementation of various business networking models and cross-border collaborations for Ascendas Pte Ltd.

Having graduated from NUS Business School as a Technopreneurship specialist, Lee is also well versed in both the “art & science” of strategies, namely the ancient Chinese philosophies on “War & Management” and Game Theory. A commissioned officer of the Singapore Armed Forces, he currently serves as a board member on NUS Business School Alumni Assoc.’s (NUSBSA) Board-of-Directors; is an Ex-co member of Start-up@Singapore (Singapore’s National Business Plan Competition), and a member of Business Angel Network (S.E.A) and MENSA, Society for the Intellectually Gifted.

Presently, Lee has taken an official leave-of-absence from his MBA Classes with NUS Business School to focus on his business interests, to support the proliferation of local entrepreneurship and also to contribute to the society through voluntary work.
