English Language Requirement

English Language is the University’s language of instruction. Besides submitting your high school qualifications for admission consideration, you may also need to submit an English Language Test score or sit for the Qualifying English Test (QET).

To check if you are required to submit an English Language Test score, refer to pages 10 to 12. English Language Test scores are valid for two years.

To check if you need to sit for the QET, visit nus.edu/qet

* Different English Language requirements apply for Law courses. Refer to page 6 for more information.
Additional Qualifications

You may need to submit additional tests or qualifications on top of your high school qualifications. Refer to the Qualifications & Admission Requirements from pages 10 to 12 to check if you are required to do so.

ACT with Writing
The ACT consists of five sections: English, Mathematics, Reading, Science and Writing Test (optional). Apart from the cut-off composite score of 29; the writing component score of 8 has to be met. The writing component is compulsory if you are submitting ACT with Writing in lieu of SAT. All ACT sections (inclusive of writing) have to be taken in one sitting. We do not accept a combination of scores from different sittings. The validity of ACT scores is five years.

SAT
The redesigned SAT (from March 2016) consists of two sections: Evidence-Based Reading & Writing, and Mathematics. All SAT sections have to be taken in one sitting. We do not accept a combination of scores from different sittings. The minimum acceptable test scores are 600 for Evidence-Based Reading & Writing, and 650 for Mathematics.
University Entrance Examination (UEE)

You may need to take the UEE if you present certain academic qualifications in your admission application. If you are taking the UEE, your admission eligibility will be based on your performance. Unless invited, you cannot take or appeal to take the UEE. The UEE will be conducted in February in Indonesia, Vietnam and Singapore.

SAT Subject Tests

You must submit three subject tests as follows:

- Mathematics Level 2*
- A second subject of your choice (excluding Mathematics Level 1)
- A third subject of your choice (excluding Mathematics Level 1)

* Mathematics Level 2 is a compulsory subject for all courses except Law. Applicants applying for admission to Law may take any subject combination for the SAT Subject Tests.

For SAT Subject Tests, we accept scores for three subjects that are taken within two sittings over 12 months. Please choose the second and third subject based on the subject prerequisites of the courses you are applying for. The minimum acceptable SAT Subject Test score is 650 for each subject.

You may submit your valid SAT and SAT Subject Tests scores for admission consideration. SAT and SAT Subject Test scores are valid for five years.

MOE Tuition Grant
A Tuition Grant, provided by the Ministry of Education, is awarded to international students on a competitive basis to help defray the costs of university education.

If your application for a Tuition Grant is successful and you have accepted it, you will pay subsidised fees, and are required to work for a Singapore entity for three years upon graduation. If you are not successful, or have chosen not to apply for a Tuition Grant, you will pay non-subsidised fees. You will also not be eligible for NUS and MOE-funded or administered Financial Aid and Scholarships during your entire course candidature.

nus.edu/ugfees

Tuition Fee Loan
A Tuition Fee Loan (TFL) is also available on top of the MOE Tuition Grant to offset your tuition fee. The value of the TFL is up to 90% of the subsidised tuition fee payable by Singapore Citizens for the same course. Please refer to the calculation scenario below to understand how it works.
