

Double Degree Programme: Environmental Engineering & Business Administration

Sharing of Experience

Outline

Why I Chose DDP

Particularly BIZAD

DDP Structure

How Exchange Fits In

Business Modules

What I learnt & What is Interesting

$0.02 Worth

& Impact on life after school

Why DDP?

Learn Two Things

ENGINEERING

BUSINESS

INTEREST & PASSION

BUSINESS RUNS THINGS

COMPLEMENTARY SKILLSETS

DDP Structure

Two Separate Degrees, Certificates & CAPs

ENGINEERING

Engin Core
Mods
(24)

BUSINESS

Bizad Core
Mods
(15)

Common
Mods
(11)

Normal Workload per Sem: 5-6 over 4.5 years

DDP Structure

How Exchange Fits In

- PLAN & CHOOSE SCHOOL CAREFULLY
- CAN MAP BOTH FACULTY'S MODS
- HAVE FUN!

Business Modules

Interesting Modules

FIN2004

How to value businesses and projects.

MNO2009

Allows you to work on a 'start-up' project and to find like-minded people

ACC1002

Fundamental accounting knowledge that is essential in managing businesses.

DSC2008

Analysis and evaluation using data

FIN3103

How financial markets work and what are the key issues in recent years

Business Modules

What I have Learnt From My Experience

Useful Skills

Practical knowledge and skills for your jobs.

Network

Unconventional schedule allows you to meet a wide range of people.

Comfort Zone

Forced me out of my comfort zone.

Perspectives

Friends and classmates with different perspectives, goals and opinions

Life After University

Impact on life and job search

Finding Your Interest

Helps you know more about what you enjoy doing

Opportunities

Through network and opportunities provided

Friends

Different groups of friends

Range of Jobs

Increased range of fields that you can choose from

Perspectives

Allows you to differentiate yourself. Also, different ways of thinking

$0.02 Worth

Personal advice and comments

PLAN AHEAD

Important to plan your schedule as far as possible (at least 1 year in advance)

KEEP AN OPEN MIND

Nature of modules is quite different and may need some time to get used to. Learn new perspectives

TIME MANAGEMENT

Make sure you can cope

NETWORK

Whether its your classmates, professors or industry guests

PRIORITIES

Understand what you like/want and prioritize