

Table of Contents

Introduction 1

1

Writing an Academic Essay

- 1.1 Analyse Your Prompt 3
  - 1.1.1 Define your purpose 4
  - 1.1.2 Analyse the key words in the prompt 4
  - 1.1.3 Consider other important words in the prompt 4
- 1.2 Gather Your Information by Research and Reading 5
- 1.3 Note Where Your Information Comes From 5
- 1.4 Think of Your Thesis 5
- 1.5 Organise Your Material 6
- 1.6 Draft Your Essay 7
- 1.7 Revise Your Essay 8
- Conclusion 8

2

Developing an Academic Essay

- 2.1 Construct Your Thesis Statement 9
- 2.2 Organise Your Paragraphs 10
  - 2.2.1 Construct a topic sentence 10
  - 2.2.2 Use different organisational patterns 11
    - 2.2.2.1 Exemplification 11
    - 2.2.2.2 Cause and effect 12
    - 2.2.2.3 Problem-solution 13
    - 2.2.2.4 Comparison and contrast 14
- 2.3 Make Your Writing Coherent 15
  - 2.3.1 Use transitions or linking words 15
  - 2.3.2 Repeat nouns and pronouns 15
- 2.4 Combine Your Ideas in Correct Sentences 16
  - 2.4.1 Join sentences using coordinating conjunctions 16
  - 2.4.2 Join sentences using subordinating conjunctions 17
- Conclusion 17

3

Using Appropriate Words in an Academic Essay

- 3.1 Use Formal Vocabulary 19
  - 3.1.1 Choose strong verbs 21
  - 3.1.2 Choose specific verbs 21
- 3.2 Use Appropriate Transitions 22

3.3	Avoid Redundancy	23
3.4	Beware of Commonly Misused Words	24
	Conclusion	25

4

Reporting Research Findings

4.1	Use Text and Visual Aids Properly	27
4.2	Interpret Results	29
4.3	Use Headings and Subheadings	30
4.3.1	Choose appropriate type of headings	30
4.3.2	Keep your headings parallel	30
4.3.3	Number your sections consistently	31
4.4	Use Language of Reporting Appropriately	31
4.5	Refer to Figures Correctly	32
	Conclusion	33

5

Proofreading an Essay or Report

5.1	Typographical Errors	35
5.1.1	Spell/type words correctly	36
5.1.2	Be careful with homophones	36
5.1.3	Avoid confusing similar words	37
5.2	Grammatical Errors	37
5.2.1	Use the right article and noun form	37
5.2.2	Make sure the subject agrees with the verb	38
5.2.3	Use parallel structures	38
5.2.4	Avoid comma splices	39
5.2.5	Use complete sentences	39
5.2.6	Make sure a modifier refers to the correct subject	40
5.3	Stylistic Errors	40
5.4	Tips for Effective Proofreading	41
	Conclusion	41

6

Using Other People's Ideas

6.1	Practise Academic Integrity	43
6.2	Use the Appropriate Documentation Style	44
6.3	Acknowledge Sources of Borrowed Information Properly	45
6.3.1	Acknowledge your sources inside the text and at the end of the text	45
6.3.2	Paraphrase or quote verbatim the information that you borrow	46
6.3.3	Cite the sources of information you have summarised	49
6.3.4	Cite the source of visual information that you borrow	50

6.3.5	Present common knowledge in appropriate ways	50
6.4	Use Software Resources	51
	Conclusion	51

7

Giving Presentations

7.1	Prepare Well	53
7.1.1	Define your purpose	54
7.1.2	Analyse your audience	54
7.1.3	Consider logistics	54
7.1.4	Research your topic	54
7.1.5	Organise your material	55
7.1.5.1	Body	55
7.1.5.2	Introduction	55
7.1.5.3	Conclusion	55
7.1.6	Prepare your outline	55
7.1.7	Plan what to say	56
7.1.8	Prepare your visual aids	56
7.1.9	Rehearse	56
7.2	Deliver Confidently	57
7.2.1	Maintain eye contact	57
7.2.2	Have a confident posture	57
7.2.3	Use gestures	57
7.2.4	Have natural facial expressions	57
7.2.5	Vary your voice	57
7.2.6	Control your speed	58
7.2.7	Handle visual aids properly	58
7.3	Answer Questions Competently	58
	Conclusion	59

8

Interacting with Peers and Tutors

8.1	Feedback	61
8.1.1	Give balanced feedback	61
8.1.1.1	Show appreciation for your peer's work	62
8.1.1.2	Be tactful and meaningful	62
8.1.1.3	Be specific	62
8.1.1.4	Express agreement/disagreement appropriately	62
8.1.1.5	Demonstrate understanding of your peers' or tutor's viewpoints	63
8.1.2	Receive feedback openly and objectively	63
8.2	Questions	63
8.2.1	Ask questions tactfully	63
8.2.2	Give clear, concise and focussed answers to questions	64
8.3	Body Language	64
8.3.1	Send positive body language signals	64
8.3.1.1	Use positive facial expressions	65

8.3.1.2	Use suitable head and hand movements	65
8.3.1.3	Be careful with personal space	65
8.3.2	Interpret body language carefully	66
	Conclusion	66

9

Interacting with Friends

9.1	Be Aware of Different Greeting Styles	67
9.2	Find Out How People Want to be Addressed	68
9.3	Ask, Do Not Tell, People What to Do	69
9.4	Respect Other People's Decisions	69
9.5	Speak "Rationally"	69
9.6	Use a Common Language When in Groups	70
9.7	Use English Appropriately	71
	Conclusion	72

10

Communicating Through Email

10.1	Know the Basics	73
10.2	Be Aware of Your Relationship with Your Reader	75
10.2.1	Get the right style and tone for your reader	75
10.2.2	Be considerate of your reader	77
	Conclusion	78