

1 Social media guidelines

- 1.1 The National University of Singapore (NUS) welcomes respectful and responsible contributions to our social media pages.
- 1.2 To ensure a safe space for all visitors, our moderators reserve the right to remove inappropriate posts or comments, which include but are not limited to:
 - Content violating the community standards of the respective social media platforms administered by NUS
 - For-profit advertisements or spam
 - Comments inciting racial or religious intolerance
 - False statements of facts
 - Pornographic or graphic material
 - Threats to, harassment of, or discrimination against a person or group
 - Seditious statements intended to provoke ill-will and violence
 - Personal information violating Singapore's Personal Data Protection Act
 - Comments completely unrelated to the National University of Singapore

2 Social media platforms

- 2.1 Part 1 above pertains to the social media channels administered by NUS, as follows:
 - Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/nus.singapore/>
 - Instagram: https://www.instagram.com/nus_singapore/
 - LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/school/national-university-of-singapore/>
 - TikTok: <https://www.tiktok.com/@nus.singapore>
 - Twitter (NUS): <https://twitter.com/NUSingapore>
 - Twitter (NUS Research): <https://twitter.com/NUSResearch>
 - Twitter (NUS Spokesperson): <https://twitter.com/NUSspokesperson>
 - WeChat: <https://mp.weixin.qq.com/s/iP2FIRWBWhgPpsN0EjDRlg>
 - YouTube: <https://www.youtube.com/nuscast>
 - Telegram: <https://t.me/nusnews>