

CITATION FOR PROFESSOR BRENDA YEOH UNIVERSITY RESEARCH RECOGNITION AWARD

Citation Reader: Professor Liu Bin

I am privileged to announce the recipient of the 2024 University Research Recognition Award – Professor Brenda Yeoh.

Brenda is Raffles Professor of Social Sciences at the Department of Geography and research leader of the Asian Migration Cluster at the Asia Research Institute. Her exceptional achievements and standing in the field of Asian migration and transnationalism studies have been recognised with the Vautrin Lud Prize, one of the highest awards for outstanding achievements in Geography.

Brenda has published in top journals in geography and migration studies, and her work has supported the efforts of international bodies such as the International Organization for Migration and the Red Cross Red Crescent Global Migration Lab. With a stellar publication record of 24,000 citations and a H-index of 85, she is ranked among the top one per cent of scientists worldwide for Geography.

Brenda's many contributions to Singapore's urban development, social service and heritage sectors have been recognised by the Public Service Medal, the MND Medallion by the Ministry of National Development, and most recently, the Friends of MCCY Award by the Ministry of Culture, Community and Youth, among other accolades.

Please join me in congratulating Professor Brenda Yeoh on receiving the University Research Recognition Award.
