

University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign students, scholars, and alumni are a community with the power to change the world.

With our land-grant heritage as a foundation, we pioneer innovative research that tackles global problems and expands the human experience. Our transformative learning experiences, in and out of the classroom, are designed to produce alumni who desire to make a significant, societal impact.

150

Undergraduate majors

5,000+

Course offerings

15

Colleges and schools

#1

Most disability-friendly campus

24

Nobel Prizes

25

Pulitzer Prizes

7

MacArthur Fellows

46,000+

Students from all 50 states and 100+ countries

1,900+

Tenure/tenure track faculty

425,000+

Living alumni

24M+

items mark one of the largest public university libraries in the world

#1

in National Science Foundation funding for the last—more than any other university, six out of the last 7 years in a row

400+

inter-institutional agreements around the world that promote student mobility, collaborative research, and engagement