

Temasek Foundation-National University of Singapore
Programme for Leadership in University Management (PLUM)
“Internationalisation: The way forward for Southeast Asian universities”

Singapore
14-16 March 2017

Proposed programme

Day 1: 14 March 2017

Keynote: University Governance and Global Talent Management

With the increasing globalized nature of higher education today, this session will frame broad issues on university governance and share NUS' experience in its institutional transformation.

Lunch

Internationalisation at home: A case study of University Town

This session is designed to use NUS' University Town as a case study to show how infrastructural design and planning can integrate diverse student bodies on campus.

Tour of University Town

Designed for the entire NUS community, University Town (UTown), is an educational hub complete with residential spaces, teaching facilities and study clusters, UTown has created a lively intellectual, social and cultural environment that distinguishes the University through excellence in learning and student engagement.

Day 2: 15 March 2017

International faculty: Recruitment, development and retention

This session will provide an overview of the benefits and challenges in recruiting, developing and retaining international faculty on campus.

International student mobility and partnerships

In keeping up with the trends of internationalisation, this session will provide NUS' experience and examples in internationalisation across various student mobility programmes and collaborations.

Lunch

Visit to a NUS school/college in collaboration with an international partner (e.g. Duke-NUS Medical School, Yale-NUS College – to be confirmed)

Free and easy afternoon/evening

**

Day 3: 16 March 2017

Integrating international students into campus life

This session will focus on programmatic and innovative methods in integrating international students into campus life and alongside local students.

International research partnerships and benchmarking

To be a research intensive university requires excellent research management and benchmarking against other research universities of the world. This session will share NUS' experience in this area and an overview of the University's integrated and multi-disciplinary nature of research.

Lunch

Internationalisation in Southeast Asia

This session aims to get all participants to discuss best practices and innovative examples of international programmes to promote ASEAN cooperation and unity.

Social Visit to the National Gallery Singapore

National Gallery Singapore is a new visual arts institution which oversees the largest public collection of Southeast Asian art in Singapore and Southeast Asia. The Gallery is housed in two national monuments—former Supreme Court and City Hall—that have been beautifully restored and transformed into this exciting venue in the heart of the Civic District.

Closing Dinner, hosted by NUS senior management
