<td>Financial Aid options will not be available for programmes/classes that are conducted fully online. If programmes are hybrid, only on-site participation would qualify a student for financial aid. If a physical/on-site programme switches to fully online before the commencement of the programme, NUS reserves the right to adjust or retract the financial aid package. Eligible students will receive the NUS Southeast Asia Experience Award (SEA) which can be applied through EduRec. This will serve to provide financial support for students participating in Southeast Asian-related online programmes. More information about the SEA can be found on the GRO website.</td>

<td>Universitas Airlangga in collaboration with Universitas Sebelas Maret organize an international program implementing culture-based program namely In-herit (Indonesian Heritage). This year, Universitas Airlangga will introduce local knowledge, tradition, and culture of medicine in East Java, especially Tengger tribe in Bromo. Meanwhile, Universitas Sebelas Maret (UNS) continues to do academic activities to preserve Javanese culture and empower the local communities. The activities will focus on introducing participants to the socio-cultural life of the Javanese people, especially in Kemuning Village, located in Karanganyar, Central Java as it has main local commodities such as tea plantations, coffee, essential oils, mushrooms, and traditional foods made from mushrooms and sweet potatoes/cassava. Participants are expected to learn more about cultures, heritages, and efforts to preserve, particularly Javanese through living in Javanese villages and traditional medicine.</td>
