 Programme Dates: 3 July to 28 July 2023
 Application Deadline: 1 April 2023

ESTIMATED COST OF PARTICIPATION

1	Programme Fee	Approximately USD1800 (Programme fees only) Accommodation and airfare are not included.
2	Financial Aid Available Through NUS GRO	Financial Aid options will not be available for programmes/classes that are conducted fully online. If programmes are hybrid, only on-site participation would qualify a student for financial aid. If a physical/on-site programme switches to fully online before the commencement of the programme, NUS reserves the right to adjust or retract the financial aid package. Eligible students will receive the NUS Southeast Asia Experience Award (SEA) which can be applied through EduRec. This will serve to provide financial support for students participating in Southeast Asian-related online programmes. More information about the SEA can be found on the GRO website .

PROGRAMME DETAILS

3	Content	The course is organized around the themes of Migration, Mobilities and Immobilities that have emerged as among the most pressing 21st century challenges, that cut across 11 of the 17 UN Sustainable Development Goals. In engaging migration, mobilities and immobility, we are interested in the different forms and facets of migration (internal, cross-border; regular and irregular), and of im/mobilities – e.g. social, political, economic), as well as intersectionalities among causes and consequences of migration and im/mobilities. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Gain valuable experience and insights working on a project that is of critical importance, be it through an NGO, a research or a policy institution.
