PROGRAMME DETAILS

4	Academic Content	The programme is designed to equip participants with deep, contextual knowledge of India's transformation while building practical frameworks for engagement. Through structured site visits, expert interactions, and experiential learning, participants will developed nuanced perspectives on India's opportunities and challenges. Participants can expect: 1. Lectures on understanding Mumbai's history, and Mumbai's role in the Indian economy and culture 2. Visits to the following: • Consulate General of the Republic of Singapore in Mumbai The visit to the Consulate-General of Singapore in Mumbai provides participants with an opportunity to gain an understanding of the diplomatic, economic and strategic relationship between Singapore and India. Discussion with the mission representatives will provide participants with insights on the role of government institutions in facilitating bilateral trade, investment, and business cooperation. • Bollywood Studio (Mumbai Film City) This visit provides participants with an inside look at the production ecosystem of India's globally influential Bollywood. The tour introduces participants to film sets, production studios, and the creative processes behind large-scale film and television productions. Through this experience, participants explore the economics of media and entertainment industries, the global reach of Indian cinema, and the role of storytelling and creative industries in shaping culture and national identity. • Bombay Stock Exchange During the visit to the Bombay Stock Exchange, participants will be introduced to one of the world's oldest stock exchanges and a central pillar of India's financial system. The session explores the functioning of capital markets, financial regulation, and the role of stock exchanges in mobilising capital for economic growth. Students may also draw comparison between the development of India's financial markets with those of Singapore and other global financial centres. Reserve Bank of India The visit to the Reserve Bank of India offers students a deeper understanding of India's monetary policy framework and financial regulatory system. Discussions will focus on inflation management, financial stability, digital payments, and the challenges of regulating a large and rapidly growing economy. Students will gain insight into how central banks shape economic outcomes and compare India's policy approach with Singapore's. Singapore Company Visit Senior representatives at a GIC company operating in India will provide insights into the organisation's operations, market strategy, and experiences operating within the Indian market. Kenvue Formerly part of Johnson & Johnson health division, Kenvue Indian, is a subsidiary of the world's largest pure-play consumer health company by revenue. This visit will provide participants with an insight into how multinational corporations operate in the Indian market and how global brand design strategies for India's consumer market through presentations and discussions with the company's representatives Port Visit and Understanding Energy During the visit, participants will learn how large-scale storage terminals operate, how ports and logistics networks facilitate international trade, and how global energy and chemical supply chains are managed. The visit also highlights the strategic importance of port infrastructure, safety standards, and logistics management in supporting India's industrial and economic growth. Dharavi Slum Visit A guided visit to Dharavi provides students with the opportunity to understand the realities of urban density, informal economies, and community resilience. The visit highlights how small-scale industries, entrepreneurship, and social networks sustain livelihoods in one of the world's most densely populated urban areas. Meeting with local NGOs Participants will interact with local non-governmental organisations that work in areas such as youth development, education, and community empowerment. These interactions will provide participants with insights into grassroots approaches to social change and the important role civil society plays in addressing urban challenges.

		• JJ College of Art JJ College of Art is India's oldest and premier fine arts institution. Through this visit, participants will learn about the role of art education in shaping cultural expression and creative industries in India, and gain insights into how visual arts reflect broader social and historical narratives. 3. Networking reception with professionals, alumni or industry representatives to exchange perspectives, build professional connections, and discuss developments in the region. 4. Cultural Immersion • Taj Mahal The Taj Mahal, built by Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan in memory of Mumtaz Mahal, is one of the world's most iconic monuments. Participants will explore its architectural brilliance, intricate marble craftsmanship, and historical symbolism while reflecting on its significance as a global cultural heritage site. • Mani Bhavan Gandhi Museum The visit to Mani Bhavan Gandhi Museum aims to enrich the participants' understanding of India's history and Mahatma Gandhi's inspiring journey towards independence. This experience will encourage participants to reflect on the principles of peace, perseverance, and ethical leadership through engaging historical exhibits and learning opportunities. • Heritage Tour of Mumbai A guided heritage tour of South Mumbai introduces participants to the historical foundations of the city as India's financial and commercial capital. Visits to landmarks such as the Gateway of India and Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Terminus provide insights into Mumbai's colonial history, maritime trade networks, and urban development. Through this experience, participants explore how historical forces, global trade, and cultural identity have shaped Mumbai's evolution into one of Asia's leading economic centres. • Mumbai Museum (CSMVS) The Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vastu Sangrahalaya (CSMVS), formerly known as the Prince of Wales Museum of Western India, is one of India's premier art and history museums. A recipient of the 2022 Award of Excellence of the UNESCO Asia-Pacific Awards for Cultural Heritage Conservation and declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2018, the museum houses a collection of approximately 70,000 historic and artistic works. The visit offers participants an opportunity to engage with artefacts spanning from the stone age to contemporary times. • Agra Fort

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

10	Visa Application	Participants are required to apply for Visas to India on their own. Singapore passport holders are required to obtain a visa before travelling to India. Your passport should be valid for at least 6 months on the expected departure date from India. As visa requirements often change at short notice, applicants are advised to visit the High Commission of India in Singapore website for up-to-date information. Singaporeans need to apply for an electronic visa (e-Visa) before arrival, i.e., submit their Indian visa forms online and obtain the necessary approval before departing for India. Upon arrival in India, travellers with an e-Visa must proceed to a “Visa on Arrival” counter at the airport to have their visa stamped on their passport. Please refer to the Indian Visa Online website for more information, and beware of fake websites that claim to offer visa services. Please note that there is no facility for visas on arrival in India, except for nationals of Japan, the UAE, and South Korea, in limited circumstances and subject to conditions as applicable under the bilateral agreements. Foreign nationals are expected to obtain an e-Visa or a regular visa before entering India by air, sea or land. Some nationalities, including Chinese, Pakistani, Bangladeshi and Sri Lankan passport holders, may find that it takes longer than standard time of 7 to 10 days to secure the necessary visa. Given the short lead time in securing a visa, we encourage you to check your eligibility for an e-Visa to better gauge if you will be able to secure a visa in time for the programme.
