Covid-19 challenges and 3 resets: Lawrence Wong

At the Institute of Policy Studies Singapore Perspectives Conference 2021 yesterday, Education Minister Lawrence Wong, who is also co-chair of the Multi-ministry Taskforce on Covid-19, highlighted three themes that must be policy makers' guiding values.

The themes of the conference is applicable to every single Singaporean, he said. Without the country's success in containing the virus, Singapore will not succeed, and the association between community and school safety remains.

In the pandemic, schools must ensure that students and teachers are safe, and that staff are also protected.

In the pandemic, schools must ensure that students and teachers are safe, and that staff are also protected.

The pandemic has increased the importance of mental health and wellness, and there is still a significant challenge in this area. Schools must ensure that students and teachers are safe, and that staff are also protected.

In the pandemic, schools must ensure that students and teachers are safe, and that staff are also protected.