

Annex: Biography of Mr Clarence Ti

Mr Clarence Ti
Deputy President (Administration) Designate
National University of Singapore

Mr Clarence Ti is the current Principal and Chief Executive Officer of Ngee Ann Polytechnic (NP), an appointment he has held since May 2014.

Mr Ti has served in the public service for over 20 years with the last 10 years in the top position of two public sector organisations. He enjoys working with people to creatively manage transformation and change, build purpose and meaning, support innovation and intra/entrepreneurship, improve governance and risk systems, and adopt new technologies.

Prior to his appointment in NP, Mr Ti served in various roles across a number of government agencies in areas of investment promotion, business and operations management, planning and co-ordination, as well as legislative and policy reviews. These agencies include the Singapore Economic Development Board, where he served in various capacities including Head of Strategic Planning and Director of the San Francisco Centre, the Singapore Land Authority where he was Director of Land Business Management and the Ministry of Law where he was Director for Strategic Planning. At the Ministry of Finance, he was previously Chief Executive of Vital, the shared services arm of the Singapore public service.

He currently sits on the boards of the Civil Service College, National Institute of Early Childhood Development, and the Action Community for Entrepreneurship. He had served on the Future Economy Council of Singapore.

Mr Ti holds a BSc (with High Honors) as well as an MSc in Electrical Engineering from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, USA, and an MBA with distinction from INSEAD.